Geneva, April 1st, 2019 - Banque de Commerce et de Placements announces key appointments

BCP announces the appointments of

- Yvan Rodo as Head of its Credit Department, and
- Pierre Galtié as Head of its Commodity Trade Finance Department

Banque de Commerce et de Placements (BCP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Yvan Rodo as Head of the Credit Department. Mr. Rodo joined the Bank in 2000 and served as the Head of the Commodity Trade Finance Department since 2012. He has played an instrumental role in the development of BCP's core business activity until he handed over the responsibility of the Department to Pierre Galtié.

With 30 years' experience in the commodities industry, Pierre Galtié was formerly Head of the Natixis Bank Switzerland Representative Office, overseeing its commodity trade finance activities. Prior to joining Natixis, Pierre Galtié was heading BNP Paribas Switzerland Commodities Coverage and held various other business development & management positions in Structured & Trade Finance both in Paris and Switzerland with a prime focus in Eastern Europe, CIS countries, and the Middle East.

Commenting on the organizational changes, Naci Sigin, CEO of BCP said: "These two appointments will further enhance the commercial effectiveness of the Bank and enable it to successfully pursue the development of its commodity trade finance activities. Yvan's extensive experience of BCP's core business and client portfolio will undoubtedly be a key asset in his new role as Head of the Credit Department, which is one of the cornerstones of our activities. In parallel, Pierre brings with him a wealth of experience which, added to proven leadership skills, are the qualifications needed to deliver on our ambitious targets to further expand our main business pillar."
